

Mommy

Mommy, I can say Mommy
When I need help I call her name, she comes to help me
Some day I'll do the same

Daddy, I can say Daddy
I like to be with him each day, he always teaches me
Some new words to say

So many words to learn to say
I'll learn them all some day
I'll practice saying them out loud
And listen to their pretty sound

Baby, I can say baby
When the baby cries I know why
She either wants to eat, or she needs some sleep

Kitty, I can say kitty
I like to pat my kitty's fur, she tells me that she likes me
With her gentle purr

Doggie, I can say doggie
My doggie and I play in the grass, I like to chase him
He runs very fast

So many words to learn to say
I'll learn them all some day
I'll practice saying them out loud
And listen to their pretty sound

Mommy, can you say Mommy?
Daddy, can you say Daddy?
Baby, can you say baby
Kitty, can you say kitty?
Doggie, can you say doggie?
